SECTION 3. The refunding bonds shall be issued in fully registered form and shall be signed and sealed as provided in the Tennessee Public Obligations Registration Act and in the resolution adopted by the district's board of education authorizing the refunding bonds.

SECTION 4. For the purpose of paying principal of and interest and redemption premiums on the bonds, notes, refunding bonds, and bond anticipation notes herein authorized and any other indebtedness of the district, there is hereby levied, in addition to any tax currently being levied within the boundaries of the district for the benefit of the district, a continuing annual property tax to take effect for the current tax year through tax year 2013, of twenty-eight cents ($0.28) and of two and one-half cents ($0.025) for tax years 2014 through 2021, inclusive, per one hundred dollars ($100) of taxable value of taxable property located within the district for bonds, notes, refunding bonds and bond anticipation notes authorized herein. The rate established herein may be adjusted from time to time in accordance with the procedure set forth in Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 67-5-1704, relating to county-wide reappraisal. These taxes shall be used exclusively to pay principal of and interest on the bonds, notes, refunding bonds, and bond anticipation notes authorized herein and any other indebtedness of the district as they come due and to maintain debt service fund balances. The board is hereby authorized to pledge such taxes to pay the principal of and interest and any redemption premiums on the bonds, notes, refunding bonds, and bond anticipation notes and any other indebtedness of the district. The taxes shall be annually extended and collected by the county trustee of Williamson County in the manner provided by general law for the extension and collection of county taxes and shall constitute a lien on the property against which they are levied with the like force and effect as do county taxes. The proceeds of these taxes, as and when collected, shall be paid by the county trustee to the district. The proceeds of these taxes, when received by the district, shall be deposited to a debt service fund to be established and maintained by the district. The debt service fund is established for the specific purpose of receiving the taxes authorized herein and any other funds which may from time to time be pledged to the payment of indebtedness of the district. The debt service fund and the funds therein shall be maintained and accounted for until payment in full of all outstanding obligations of the district and shall be used for the purpose of paying principal of and premium, if any, and interest on the bonds, notes, refunding bonds, and bond anticipation notes and any other indebtedness of the district. In the event property taxes and such other funds as shall be pledged to the payment of the indebtedness of the district are not sufficient to pay principal thereof and interest thereon when due, the district shall apply funds from operations or other available funds of the district to the payment thereof. So much of the surplus arising from the tax hereinabove described and not required for the payment of debt service on outstanding obligations of the district may be used, at the discretion of the board, for the construction, improvement, renovation, expansion, furnishing, fixturing and equipping of school buildings and facilities, and additions thereto, in and for the district, including the purchase of all property, real and personal, or interests therein, necessary in connection with such work.

SECTION 5. The board of education is authorized, but not required, to pledge to the payment of the refunding bonds all or a portion of:

(1) Its share of the Local Option Sales and Use Tax now or hereafter levied and collected in Williamson County pursuant to Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 67-6-712; and

(2) Any other funds received from the state of Tennessee, or any of its authorities, agencies or instrumentalities, for school purposes and available to be used for capital outlay expenditures.

SECTION 6. The refunding bonds, and all income therefrom, shall be exempt from all state, county and municipal taxation in the state of Tennessee, except inheritance, transfer and estate taxes and except as otherwise provided by applicable law.

SECTION 7. The district is further authorized, by resolution of the board of education, to borrow money and issue its bonds for the purpose of refunding at or prior to maturity, in whole or in part, at any time, in accordance with the terms hereof, the refunding bonds authorized herein. The board shall have the power to provide for the custody, application and investment of the proceeds of the refunding bonds pending retirement of the refunding bonds.

SECTION 8. No election shall be necessary for the authorization of the refunding bonds and the provisions of Section 9 of Chapter 563 of the Private Acts of 1949, as amended, shall not be applicable to the refunding bonds issued hereunder.

SECTION 9. To the extent the provisions of this act conflict with the provisions of Chapter 181 of the Private Acts of 1992, as amended by Chapter 87 of the Private Acts of 1997; Chapter 68 of the Private Acts of 1985; Chapter 60 of the Private Acts of 1989 and Chapter 11 of the Private Acts of 1999 (the "private acts"), including but not limited to the terms of the refunding bonds and the tax levied with respect to such refunding bonds, then the provisions of this act shall prevail with respect to the refunding bonds authorized hereunder, except to the extent any provisions of this act or the application thereof shall be held by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unenforceable, then the provisions of the prior acts shall remain in full force and effect.

SECTION 10. If any provision of this act or the application thereof shall be held by any court or competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this act and the application of such provisions shall not be affected thereby, shall be enforced to the greatest extent permitted by law and are declared to be severable.

SECTION 11. This act shall take effect upon becoming a law, the public welfare requiring it.
